TAMMY PALMER

On your side in Duryard and St James

Please use your vote on Thursday 2nd May for Lib Dem Tammy Palmer to ensure that our area gets the strong voice on the Council it needs, working alongside Councillor Mike Mitchell and Councillor Kevin Mitchell.

Tammy is a passionate community campaigner. She has spent most of her career working in the voluntary sector. She now works as a Human Resources Director.

More and more people across Duryard and St James are backing Tammy Palmer.

She lives in the ward in Prospect Park with her husband and son who attends a local school.

Tammy works closely with Lib Dem councillors Kevin Mitchell and Michael Mitchell to get things done.

Voters in Duryard and St James deserve better than being taken for granted by Labour. They deserve better than yet another Labour councillor, who will just go along with what their party bosses tell them to do.

Elections here are a close race between the Liberal Democrats and Labour. Many people who have voted Conservative in the past are backing Tammy this time. A vote for the Conservatives here will only let Labour win.

Please use your vote for Lib Dem Tammy Palmer on Thursday 2nd May to get a strong local campaigning voice.
